After Hours...
Mason-Dixon Line

Russ Johnston and his wife Gail are avid bike riders and plan their vacations around trips on rail-trails. This fall while enjoying a bike ride on the Great Allegheny Passage rail-trail, in addition to riding thru two old railroad tunnels, they happened upon the Mason-Dixon line between Maryland and Pennsylvania. In addition to the informational plaques and the monument shown above, a representation of a surveyors' chain crossed the trail. They walked the 66 feet of this chain and could only wonder at how many times Mason and Dixon carefully placed a chain while completing their survey.

Year End Reflections...

As this year draws to a close, we wish to once again thank you, our clients, for providing us with the opportunity to work with and for you. While the year has had its' challenges, we can safely say that it was better than the year before and now 2017 looks even brighter.

We look forward to new opportunities and new challenges in the year ahead.

See you in 2017!

Call Richard Meehan for more information about how to set up a seminar for your group at your location.

Under Development... Coltsville National Historical Park

After an almost 15 year process, the creation of the new Coltsville National Historical Park in Hartford is nearing reality. Meehan & Goodin is preparing the very detailed land surveys necessary to implement the transfer of certain property and buildings to the National Park Service for a visitors' center, offices, and display area.

Moving Forward... Preston Riverwalk

In 1998 and 1999, Meehan & Goodin conducted surveys of the former Norwich State Hospital in Preston and Norwich. In 2015, the Town of Preston acquired the property and we are now working with the Town of Preston in preparation for a sale to the Mohegan Tribe. Watch this space for updates.

Under Construction... Airport Parking Improvements

Continuing a long history with LAZ Parking, Meehan & Goodin has prepared parking improvement plans for three LAZ airport parking lots in Windsor Locks. Improvements include storm drainage, fencing, lighting and pavement enhancements. Town approval applications were also prepared including a zoning text amendment to allow taller light poles for airport parking lots.

Project Approved... Gengras Volvo

When Gengras Volvo planned to construct a new dealership in North Haven, they returned to Meehan & Goodin to prepare the land surveys, site plans, and permit assistance that would be required.
